Rule 701.1 Family Centered Case Resolution Process

California Rule of Court 5.83 establishes processes and procedures for courts to manage cases from initial filing to final disposition in an effective and timely manner. The rule establishes goals for the final disposition of family law cases as follows:

- 1) At least 20 percent are disposed within 6 months from the date the petition was filed;
- 2) At least 75 percent are disposed within 12 months from the date the petition was filed; and
- 3) At least 90 percent are disposed within 18 months from the date the petition was filed.

It is the intent of the Superior Court of Orange County to implement case management procedures that focus on efficient processing of the case including early resolution of the issues, settlement opportunities, and the reduction of the cost of litigation. The Court has also taken into consideration the uniqueness of each family law case and the many cases that do not require judicial involvement in order to reach resolution.

- A. The Court has adopted a case resolution process with multiple components each with its own specific standards and processing procedures. The purpose of each component is to ensure judicial resources are used strategically, to give those cases that need judicial attention that opportunity and to use all scheduled hearings as an occasion to bring the case closer to resolution.

1. Case Review

Cases will be electronically reviewed to determine if they are meeting procedural milestones set forth below. Cases that do not meet the milestones will receive notice to appear at a Procedural Assistance Conference, a Status Conference, or a Family Centered Case Resolution Conference, depending upon the progress of the case.

At a Status or Family Centered Case Resolution Conference, a case may be assigned to a judicial officer for all purposes including ongoing monitoring.

Rule 703. Child Custody, Parenting Time

A. Scope of Rule

All proceedings related to the custody or parenting time of children will be governed by Sections B-H of this rule.

B. Good Faith Effort

The parties must make a good faith effort to arrive at an agreement regarding child custody and/or parenting time before any court hearing.

C. Mediation

It is the policy of this court to encourage mediation of custody and parenting time disputes. Requirements are set forth below. If there is a disagreement over child custody or parenting time the parties must attend mediation before the court hearing. Mediators are employees of the Superior Court, Family Court Services Department. In the event that the parties are unable to agree, the mediator may meet and confer with the parties and their attorneys in an effort to bring about a settlement.

1. A mandatory mediation appointment will be given to the moving party prior to the setting of the time for the order to show cause hearing. If an agreement is reached prior to the mediation appointment, both parties and/or their attorneys must contact Family Court Services to cancel the appointment and advise that an agreement was reached.

In the event that only one party contacts Family Court Services, the appointment will not be canceled or rescheduled.

A $100.00 sanction may be imposed by the court for failure to attend mediation or for failure to cancel an appointment upon reaching an agreement.

2. Conduct of Mediation: All mediation proceedings must be held in private and all communications from the parties to the court mediator will be deemed official information within the meaning of Evidence Code section 1040. The mediator may exclude attorneys from the mediation sessions between the parties. Such exclusion will be at the sole discretion of the mediator.
 - a. Absent a stipulation to the contrary, and except as provided in Family Code section 3151(c)(5), there must be no ex parte communication between the attorney for either party or minor's counsel and a mediator except to schedule appointments. An attorney for a party, or minor's counsel, must not provide a

LOCAL RULES – SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA, COUNTY of ORANGE

- mediator with documents pertaining to the case without first providing a copy of the documents to the other side and minor's counsel, if any.
- b. Sufficient time, at the discretion of the court, should be allowed to permit successful completion of the mediation process.
 - c. At the conclusion of each mediation session, absent an agreement of the parties settling all issues of custody and parenting time, the mediator must advise the court whether further mediation may be helpful in resolving this matter. If so, the court may order the parties to return for further mediation.
 - d. If the mediator determines that mediation is unable to assist the parties, the mediator must advise the court, whereupon the court will determine the issues after hearing.
 - e. While the mediation process is ongoing, the court may make temporary orders concerning custody and parenting time.
 - f. A mediator will not testify on any mediation conducted, whether or not an agreement is reached.
 - g. Any request for a change of mediator must be made to a Supervising Court Mediator or the Manager of Family Court Services.
 - h. Written complaints about a mediator must be made to a Supervising Court Mediator or the Manager of Family Court Services, who must provide a written response to the person filing the complaint within thirty days of its receipt.
3. The mediator may conduct one or more mediation sessions. The mediator may request that the court continue any scheduled court hearing in order to accommodate additional mediation sessions. The attorneys need not be present at the initial or subsequent mediation sessions unless specifically requested to attend by the mediator.
 4. The mediator will not discuss the case with only one attorney present. In those instances where the mediator has requested attorneys to appear and an appointment has been set, failure by an attorney to appear, absent good cause, will constitute grounds for the imposition of sanctions. Parties and their attorneys must use their best efforts and negotiate in good faith with the mediator in an effort to avoid a contested hearing or trial on the custody/parenting time issue. Any party or attorney who fails to meet and confer in good faith with the mediator may be subject to appropriate sanctions after notice and hearing.

LOCAL RULES – SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA, COUNTY of ORANGE

5. At any time during the mediation process the mediator may recommend to the court that an investigation and report be made pursuant to Family Code sections 3110 et seq.; that a referral be made pursuant to Evidence Code section 730; and/or that independent counsel be appointed for the child/children pursuant to Family Code section 3150.

All persons with access to a report are prohibited from making copies or disclosing its contents to any child who is a subject of the report.

Child custody investigations are conducted by court investigators who are employees of the Superior Court, Family Court Services Department.
